Bradford Girls' Grammar School

BA Hons, PGCE, NPQH

Jo has a BA Hons degree in Combined Studies from Leicester University in 1991 and gained her Post Graduate Teaching Qualification in 1993. She also gained her National Professional Qualification for Headteachers in 2012.

She started her teaching career in London in 1993 where she worked for 5 years in a large, four form entry junior school. Whilst there, she led the Maths and PE curriculum. Following that, Jo worked at Bradford Girls' Grammar School first as a Teacher at Lady Royd from 1998, then as Head of the Juniors followed by Deputy Head. From 2008 to 2011 she had the pleasure of being the Head of Lady Royd.

In 2012, Jo became Headteacher at Ghyll Royd Independent School and Nursery in Ilkley but left there to move to Holmfirth in 2014. Now she is the Head of the Primary Phase at an all through 3-16 school in Huddersfield.

Jo has a daughter who is currently in Year 7 at one of the last remaining Middle Schools in Kirklees' She keeps busy with all her daughter's activities, which include amongst many things, swimming for the Borough of Kirklees Synchronised Swimming Squad.

Jo loves keeping active and particularly enjoys playing tennis for a local tennis club and had the pleasure of being Captain of the Second Ladies' team in recent years.
